1. Looking at the figures provided by the Office of Personnel Policy, Planning, and Management, which are [] EODs by October 1981 and FY 1982 EODs 2300, with the likelihood of this high rate continuing through 1983 (normal EOD rate is [] per year), the FY 1981 OMS requirements are [] and no personnel. We would accomplish this by trying to absorb the strain and temporarily suspending such services as POCM and management consulting. (We have not talked to OT&E about this.)

2. This is our only alternative because it would be impossible to either recruit or hire in time to satisfy these requirements. Our FY 1982 requirements are [] which includes [] These would be for []

3. These are the figures that are going to be given to Mr. Fitzwater.
